Awards vs Rewards

It is useful to think through differences in order to help guide our thinking and school practice.

Rewards: Something is given in return for service, effort or achievement (good or bad) used to manipulate, lure and motivate – bribery for control. Do this and you will get that.

Awards: Acknowledgement of service, effort or achievement (good only) that is not motivated by the desire for a reward or the pleasure of the reward giver. In other words, awards are not used to manipulate student behaviour. Awards, therefore, should reflect entrenched habits of action so there is a minimalist approach. Students need to be motivated by a desire for self-improvement and a commitment to virtuous behaviour. The whole purpose of giving awards is to hold up students as beacon role models – something to aspire to, set examples for others.

Therefore we do not want awards to simply highlight innate ability without virtuous behaviour otherwise we are indicating that innate ability or being gifted is the key requirement for success and achievement.

Class Dojo

As a positive incentive system and to track student behaviour Yanchep Lagoon Primary School will use Class Dojo. Students demonstrating behaviours in accordance with the Matrix will be awarded with points. These free and frequent awards accumulate such that students whose behaviour is consistently on track receive Behaviour Pin Awards.

Class Dojo is accessible by parents so that teachers and parents can work together to monitor student behaviour.

Class Dojo points are collected as Faction Points. Awards and recognition are periodically given to the Faction with the highest number of points.

Buddy Class

It is important that teachers have control of their classroom and students have a choice regarding their own behaviour. Use the Classroom Management Framework (CMS Bump Chart) to support your response to behaviour. When a student is using 'persistent attention seeking' or 'power seeking' behaviour and 'chooses' to act negatively on choice given, buddy class may be the most appropriate strategy to use to diffuse the situation allowing others to learn and gives the student time to reflect on his/her behaviour.

WHEN TO SEND

Stage 1 – repeated low level disruptive behaviour

Guidelines for Suspension

When all efforts to contain the behaviour of a disruptive student have failed, the Principal is authorised by the Department of Education and Training to suspend a student. Suspension is a legal process of preventing students from attending school for a limited period of time if their behaviour and conduct is not conducive to the good order and proper management of the school.

In cases of either repeated or serious breaches of the Code of Conduct, the Principal may authorise the suspension of students for a limited period.

Parents will receive a written note informing them of the reason for suspension and its duration.

The following documentation will be completed when a student is suspended:

- a) A copy of the reason for suspension will be forwarded to:
 - i. Classroom teacher
 - ii. The parents or guardian
 - iii. Copy on file
- b) The suspension will be recorded on Integris.
- c) Re-entry Behaviour Contract written by the student with support from their classroom teacher and Deputy Principal.

A student returning to school from suspension will be monitored using a Behaviour Contract for a set number of weeks. The Behaviour Contract will be developed by the Classroom Teacher with the student. The Contract will be monitored by the Deputy Principal.

Good Standing

Students begin the year with Good Standing. This allows them to commence the year on an equal basis with an achievable goal, that of having and maintaining their Good Standing. Our aim, as a school community, is to help the students maintain Good Standing by providing a supportive environment for all.

ATTENDING/INCLUSION IN SPECIAL EVENTS

Attending or inclusion in a wide range of special events (incursions/excursions) is strongly encouraged and supported in this school.

To attend/be considered for special events a student must have Good Standing. This means they need to be:

- behaving appropriately (adhering to School Wide Behaviour Expectations),
- meeting curriculum requirements/outcomes to the best of their ability,
- wearing school uniform and,
- attending regularly and being punctual to classes.

If it is a known, pre-planned event such as Rewards Days /Camp, this must be clearly outlined and communicated to students and parents well before the event.

LOSS and REGAINING of GOOD STANDING

A student can lose Good Standing if they fail to meet the requirements of Good Standing or are suspended. Only a Deputy Principal / Principal can remove Good Standing.

Students who have lost Good Standing are required to successfully complete a minimum of 1 week (maximum of 4 weeks) on a Behaviour Contract which is individualised to help the student regain their Good Standing. When a student has successfully completed the Behaviour Contract they are deemed to have 'regained their Good Standing'. Any student who is at significant risk of not maintaining Good Standing (factors out of their control) will be identified and on an individualized plan which supports them to work towards attaining Good Standing.

Bullying and Teasing

All staff and students at Yanchep Lagoon Primary School have the right to, and responsibility for, a safe environment in school. The school promotes positive behaviours and positive reactions in individual and group interactions. When bullying, teasing or harassment occurs, this policy is brought into action.

Bullying, teasing and harassment will not be tolerated at Yanchep Lagoon Primary School.

Bullying touches almost everyone's life, it is widespread and harmful - but it is also preventable. As we learn more about its lasting effects, it is becoming an issue of growing concern to teachers and parents. Every one of us has the right to feel safe, secure, accepted and valued and the responsibility to take action to ensure others feel the same.

Definition

Bullying is when someone, or a group of people, who have more power at the time, deliberately upset or hurt another person, their property, reputation or social acceptance on more than one occasion.

Types of Bullying

There are three broad categories of bullying.

Direct physical bullying e.g. hitting, tripping, and pushing or damaging property. It also includes:

- Punching
- Kicking
- Pushing
- Pinching
- Hitting
- Spitting
- Mobbing
- Biting
- Slapping
- Pulling hair
- Threatening with objects

Direct verbal bullying e.g. name calling, insults, homophobic or racist remarks, verbal abuse. It also includes:

- Name calling
- Threats
- Swearing
- Put downs
- Verbal
- Written notes
- Racial taunts
- Sexist taunts

Indirect bullying - This form of bullying is harder to recognise and often carried out behind the bullied student's back. It is designed to harm someone's social reputation and/or cause humiliation. Indirect bullying includes:

- lying and spreading rumours
- stalking or following
- playing nasty jokes to embarrass and humiliate
- mimicking
- nasty looks, signs and / or gestures
- encouraging others to socially exclude someone
- damaging someone's social reputation and social acceptance
- offensive / hurtful notes or graffiti
- cyber-bullying, which involves the use of email, text messages or chat rooms to humiliate and distress.

WHAT BULLYING IS NOT

Many distressing behaviours are not examples of bullying even though they are unpleasant and often require teacher intervention and management. There are three socially unpleasant situations that are often confused with bullying:

Mutual conflict

In mutual conflict situations, there is an argument or disagreement between students but not an imbalance of power. Both parties are upset and usually both want a resolution to the problem. However, unresolved mutual conflict sometimes develops into a bullying situation with one person becoming targeted repeatedly for 'retaliation' in a one-sided way.

Social rejection or dislike

Unless the social rejection is directed towards someone specific and involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others, it is not bullying.

Single-episode acts of nastiness or meanness, or random acts of aggression or intimidation. This is not the same as bullying. If a student is verbally abused or pushed on one occasion they are not being bullied. Nastiness or physical aggression that is directed towards many different students is not the same as bullying. In both cases, however, these incidents should be recorded for monitoring purposes.
